new testament scholar johannes beutler brings together a lifetime of study and reflection in this acclaimed commentary first published in german in 2013 and now available to english speaking audiences for the first time moving through the gospel of john with a careful and critical eye beutler engages the relevant primary and secondary sources summarizes the existing discussion and presents syntactic semantic and pragmatic analyses of the text as he meticulously examines the fourth gospel beutler pays special attention to the influence of old testament and early jewish traditions to the overall structure of the gospel of john and to evidence suggesting a later stratum of contextualized re readings in the composition of the gospel bold literary and theological this volume represents a landmark work of german biblical scholarship this volume deals with the federal theology of johannes cocceius who lived in the seventeenth century 1603 1669 german by birth he taught at bremen franeker and leiden where he was professor of theology 1650 1669 as foremost biblical interpreter he sought to formulate a covenant theory which described all of human history by introducing the structure of consecutive covenants or foedera the book poses a surprising alternative to the readings of earlier scholarship on cocceius by its careful presentation of the pneumatological components of the doctrine of covenants cocceius federal theology was of considerable importance in the theological and political history of europe and the united states and formes the framework for much of the reformed theology in the past three centuries the gospel of john and the religious quest argues that at its origin the fourth gospel was part of a dialogue with various religious traditions and that to this day it is being used in active dialogue with those who live in traditions other than the christian in the first part of the book johannes nissen analyzes a number of texts selected both for their central importance to john s theology and for their special relevance in today s religious quests and encounters these texts focus on john s images of life water bread light way and tree but also treat concepts that are crucial to the fourth gospel word truth and love in the second part nissen focuses on significant issues for current readers of the gospel the relation between incarnation and inculturation models for dialogue with other religions images of christ truth and love as criteria for dialogue and the experience of faith in the light of the fourth
